PROACTIVE PRACTICES

Caring for planet Earth isn't something we take lightly. And we realize it isn't just a matter of turning off lights or planting an organic garden, although these are important. Fairmont Hotels & Resorts prioritizes six key pillars to drive our sustainability programs:

- Our guests
- Our people
- Our partners
- Our communities
- Our buildings
- Our food

REDUCE, REUSE & RECYCLE

- Installation of automatic water, energy and temperature meters
- Installation of recycling bins in all meeting rooms and guestrooms
- Reduce the amount of waste we generate
- Reduce our greenhouse gas emissions
- To go cups are paper compostable, no single wrapped tea bags, slippers are wrapped in paper with a wood base
- All Keurig machines have been replaced with Nespresso

BEE SUSTAINABLE

From our glorious gardens to our important local partnerships, caring for our bees and guests is part of our grand earth-friendly plan. The Empress Honeybees live in beehive colonies located in the hotel's Centennial Garden. Our busy bees help pollinate the flowers in the garden and the herbs in our rooftop garden.

OUR ENVIRONMENTAL MISSION

For more than 25 years, Fairmont has been an environmental leader among eco-friendly hotels. As one of the first luxury hotel brands to achieve emission reduction targets, we embrace the sustainability initiatives developed by Accor. From garden bee hotels to innovative water-reduction techniques, we're proud to be recognized as having one of the most comprehensive eco-friendly programs in the North American hotel industry.
