Meet the Chef

Executive Chef Morgan Wilson

Chef Morgan Wilson brings over 30 years of culinary experience to his role as Executive Chef at Fairmont Empress. Beginning his hospitality career as Chef Apprentice with Delta Whistler in 1989, he quickly crafted his talent and passion, holding progressive careers with Delta, Marriott and Four Seasons hotels in Germany, Australia and Canada. Since joining Fairmont Empress in 2013, Wilson has twice been invited to represent the hotel at Gold Medal Plates, a national culinary competition supporting Canadian Olympic athletes. Chef Morgan has achieved his Certified Chef de Cuisine and his Culinary Red Seal. Further accolades for Wilson include Marriott Hotel's Global Chef of the Year and the Rising Star Award for excellence in dining, leadership and innovation. He now leads a team of over 50 culinary professionals. BC born and raised, Chef Wilson is eager to showcase the abundant bounty of Vancouver Island this holiday season. Chef Wilson describes his culinary style as one without borders, always evolving and incorporating international influences. He believes great cuisine involves two simple ingredients: top quality products with flawless technique.
