

CASTLE TO CASTLE: ICONIC FAIRMONT HOTELS AND PORTER AIRLINES UNVEIL DIRECT OTTAWA TO VICTORIA TRAVEL EXPERIENCE

- An elevated way to travel Capital to Capital while staying at iconic Canadian properties -

Victoria, B.C. (May 15, 2025) – Two of Canada’s most storied castles, Fairmont Empress and Fairmont Château Laurier, are celebrating Porter Airlines’ new non-stop flight between Victoria and Ottawa with a curated travel experience that offers convenience, comfort and connection between some of Canada’s most historic and luxurious landmarks.

The ‘Castle to Castle, Capital to Capital’ experience aims to elevate Canadians’ travel experience with a seamless flight between Vancouver Island and the historic capital. With Porter Airlines’ focus on customer-first service and Fairmont’s commitment to hospitality excellence, the partnership is set to provide travellers with an exceptional journey from start to finish.

Fairmont Empress and Fairmont Château Laurier redefine guests’ stay with exclusive Fairmont Gold experiences, providing personalized services and opulent amenities. Alongside their historic grandeur and modern touches, the properties are in prime locations at the heart of their vibrant cities, overlooking the water.

Fairmont Empress, built in 1908, is a national historic site well-known as a Canadian treasure perched on the edge of Victoria’s Inner Harbour. Surrounded by natural beauty and countless amenities nearby, there is something for everyone. Whale watching, lush gardens, scenic trails, and established restaurants and bars are all steps away from the hotel’s front door. Enjoy the breathtaking view, stunning architecture and world-renowned Afternoon Tea service.

Fairmont Château also blends timeless grandeur with contemporary luxury and is located steps away from the Rideau Canal, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Guests can enjoy refined Canadian cuisine and breathtaking city views at La Terrasse, one of Ottawa’s best patios, from May to October. The setting offers a memorable backdrop, featuring the Parliament Buildings, Gatineau Hills and the Rideau Canal Locks, making every bite and sip truly special.

"From the Pacific coast to Parliament Hill, the 'Castle to Castle, Capital to Capital' offering is a celebration of Canadian history, culture, and hospitality," said Dan McGowan, General Manager at Fairmont Empress. "We are thrilled to partner with Fairmont Château Laurier and Porter Airlines to create an enjoyable and memorable journey from takeoff to check-out."

"Fairmont Château Laurier has long stood as a symbol of elegance and history in the heart of the nation's capital," said Geneviève Dumas, General Manager at Fairmont Château Laurier. "We are delighted to partner with Fairmont Empress and Porter Airlines to offer guests a truly distinctive 'Castle to Castle, Capital to Capital' experience. This seamless journey between two of Canada's most iconic destinations reflects our shared commitment to exceptional hospitality, unforgettable moments, and a deep connection to Canadian heritage."

"Porter is the only airline offering nonstop service between Ottawa and Victoria. When connecting these two capitals, travellers are greeted with an elevated level of service onboard. Through our partnership with Fairmont, this renowned hospitality extends throughout a passenger's entire journey," said Edmond Eldebs, Senior Vice President, Chief Commercial Officer."

Starting May 15, 2025, the new Porter Airlines service will operate four days a week. To book a flight, click here. To reserve your stays at Fairmont Empress or Fairmont Château Laurier, visit: Fairmont Hotels & Resorts | Luxury Hotels Around the World.
